

Winter ice art

winter

Look for natural objects such as acorn cups, pine needles and cones.

When you get home visit: www.forestry.gov.uk/westonbirt-seasonalplay to explain how to create winter ice art for your garden.

This activity involves putting objects into water in a cup or saucer or shallow container with a piece of string. Put in the freezer, when frozen, remove from container and hang up outside.

